

2023 Greater Tacoma Peace Prize

Nomination Form

Instructions for Submitting a Nomination

1 – Please complete the form:

NOMINEE INFORMATION SUBMITTED BY

| | |
|--|--|
| | |
| Name (Individual/Group/Organization) | Name (Individual/Group/Organization) |
| | |
| Street Address | Street Address |
| | |
| City/Zip Telephone | City/Zip Telephone |
| | |
| E-mail | E-mail |
| | |
| Contact person (if group/organization) | Contact person (if group/organization) |

2 – In 500 to 750 words, summarize specifically how the nominee has significantly contributed to peace, reconciliation, and harmony, whether locally, regionally, nationally, or internationally. Describe what the nominee has accomplished that particularly merits recognition. Criteria used by the committee in selecting the recipient include, but are not limited to: a genuine commitment to peace, attention to diversity, hands-on involvement in peace work, longevity of service in peace work, and impact of peace work. Please address those topics. [Please note that the Laureate is expected to attend the 2023 May 17 Parade in Seattle, the 2023 GTPP Laureate Recognition Banquet in September, and the 2022 Nobel Peace Prize festivities in December, in Norway.]

3 – Reference: Please provide contact information for an additional person who could speak to the qualifications of the nominee.

Name:

Address:

E-mail: Telephone:

4 – Mail the nomination documents to: Greater Tacoma Peace Prize
Committee 2661 N. Pearl St. PMB
#301
Tacoma, WA 98407

OR scan and email the documents to: committee@tacomapeaceprize.org

OR complete the form on our website.

All nomination materials must be received by March 31, 2023.

GTPP website: <https://tacomapeaceprize.org>

Facebook - 'Greater Tacoma Peace Prize'

The Greater Tacoma Peace prize recognizes, supports and advances peace-building and peacemaking by local citizens and institutions in order to promote, achieve and sustain peace, justice and reconciliation at home and abroad.